Rate of Interest for the Issues of 1913 Fixed at Five Per Cent.

NATURAL GAS QUESTION AGAIN RAISED BY EAST

Large Amount of Business is Transacted at Meeting of Last Night

The city council at its regular meeting last night voted money at the rate of a quarter of a million dollars a minute. The pleasant little diversion lasted for about twenty minutes, at the end of which time over $3,000,000 had been voted. While the time the council devoted to the matter of passing of these money by-laws was short, of course the matters involved had all received many, many hours of consideration at previous meetings.

The question of whether a 1-2 or 3 per cent interest should be paid on the debentures was disposed of in short order. The mayor expressed himself as somewhat in favor of retaining the present rate of 1-2 per cent, as fixing a certain standard for Edmonton debentures. Ald. Livingston, however, declared that in his opinion five per cent should be offered, as the city would have to come to this in time anyway. Ald. Lindsay believed that it was a question that was as broad as it was long. A lower rate of interest would bring a lower price in the market, while a higher rate would bring a correspondingly higher price. It was thereupon decided unanimously by the council that the 1913 issue of $3,000,000 debentures should be at five per cent.

During the discussion of the money by-laws, Ald. East brought up the question as to what was to be done with the commissioners' report submitted last week asking that $18,000 be added for the better of a gas distribution plant in the city. It was thought that this report should be acted upon at once. Ald. Livingston agreed with him, but a motion by one of the council to that effect was overruled by a majority of the council in favor of the report, suggesting that the entire natural gas question should be discussed at a special meeting of the council to be held by the mayor immediately after the return from his trip next week. Ald. East did not like the idea of the report being brought up repeatedly by the council. "I feel like moving a vote of censure on the aldermen of the council," he declared. "They seem to be very verbose in their opinion, but should be settled at once."

When the by-law calling for some $160,000 for land purchases was being passed, provisionally, Ald. East made his formal protest by leaving his chair, as this amount includes the money spent in the purchase of land for the opening up and extension of Kinsburgh street.

EDMONTON HAS AN UNUSUAL SPECTACLE

The unusual spectacle was witnessed in Edmonton during the first hours of yesterday evening of a rain storm of unusual intensity, and the spectators as a protection against the rain afterwards changed to snow, which fell thick and fast during the greater part of the night. It was not the snow, dry snow as it fell, but the rain, which the Edmontonians are accustomed in the winter months to see, which was the cause of the unusual spectacle. The snow was of the variety of the east, causing great trouble to those unfortunate citizens who had forgotten their rubber boots. STRAFACETTE IN LONDON

Women are Roughly Handled By the Police and Many Spectators

By Bulletin Leased Wire. Pittsburgh, Jan. 28.—The deputy sheriff and strikers from the Hanks plant of the American Steel and Wire company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation, clashed tonight, one man being killed and twelve women injured, including a fatal fatality.

All the wounded, except two deputy sheriffs and a policeman, were spectators. The strikers were injured so far as can be learned.

Among the injured are several women and a six-month old child. The deputy sheriffs and strikers collided with Hanks, one of the principal strikers of Hanks, which adds to the confusion.

The county officers, armed with revolvers and rifles, and the strikers, armed with revolvers and rifles, fought for one hour within an area of two acres, situated in the center of the city. The fighting ended when the deputy sheriff retreated within the fence of the mill.

The strikes at the plant of the American Steel and Wire company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation, started last night at 11:22 a.m. The strikers are mainly foreigners, employed as laborers in the advancing, shipping and crane work. They are paid at the rate of $2.00 an hour, or $1.00 a day for ten hours, and are demanding thirty cents an hour.

The strike started outburst last Saturday night when strikers and policemen of Hanks clashed. Nine persons were injured, a majority of them women. Many shots were fired without effect. Sunday was quiet owing to the presence of Sheriff J. J. Smith, who is a deputy sheriff, with large force of deputies. During Saturday night, however, the strikers took possession of the mill surrounding Hanks, building a barricade. The strikers were directed toward the yards of the mill. Hanks, Monday morning, the deputy sheriff dispersed the strikers, extinguishing the fire, and Sheriff Smith was seen closing all saloons. This was followed later by the probable fatal clash of a deputy sheriff, who was slain, and a woman, who was slain.

Hanks, issued a proclamation declaring the borough was in a state of riot, and that a deputy sheriff, who was slain, and a woman, who was slain.

MANY INCONSISTENCIES IN BANK CLERK'S STORY

A Number of Details Have Not Been Satisfactorily Explained — City Detectives and Pinkerton Men Still Working Case

There have been no new developments in connection with the alleged robbery of the Bank of Montreal, although both the city and Pinkerton detectives are still working the case.

It is not correct to say that the police entirely discredit the story of the robbery. They say, however, that his account of the robbery is full of inconsistencies which have not been satisfactorily explained. These inconsistencies are many, and are pointed out by the city detectives.

The first inconsistency is the fact that the robbery was said to have taken place at 11:22 a.m. on Saturday night. The police say that the robbery was said to have taken place at 11:22 a.m. on Saturday night.

At last another liverman, who knew the man, kindly climbed into the rig and drove the horse along Whyte avenue to the stables. With a friend offered to drive the incapacitated man home and the procession started along the lane. The crowd of farmers at the market followed to see the sight.

WILL EDMONTON BE ON NATIONAL HIGHWAY

This is Question put to Board of Trade by James McGregor, Also Minutes Recent Whistler Convention—Annual Meeting of Board Held Yesterday.

Will Edmonton be on the route of the national highway running from coast to coast across the whole breadth of the Dominion? This was a question raised at the annual meeting of the Edmonton board of trade yesterday. James McGregor, who was designated by the board to attend the national convention held in Winnipeg last summer, stating that representations ought to be made at once in favor of that road passing through Edmonton and the Yellowhead, instead of through the Crown's Nest Pass. The southern route had been proposed at the national convention, but he had been successful in seeing it deleted from the report of the convention on the ground that the provincial authorities, who would contribute, ought to be consulted.

According to engineers, he believed that a road through the mountains would be far cheaper if built through the Yellowhead than if built through the Crown's Nest Pass, and as great advantage would accrue from the fact, he brought forward the suggestion to be done to ensure that the route should pass through Edmonton. A motion was carried establishing a road committee to confer with the board, and the committee will at once take up the question of representation at the annual meeting of the National Highway association in March.

Mr. Martin's Review.
The retiring president of the board, Milton Martin, reviewed the work of Members of the board of trade, including James McGregor, who is pointing out the route of the proposed national highway.

RUSSIAN COMING CAR APPEARS IN PUBLIC.—As a rule the photographers and sketch artists are not allowed within many yards of the car of Russia and its family, but the recent attempt regarding the health of the Czar's daughter, of proving that his son was not as ill as some people said. The picture shows the youthful heir to Russia's throne and it is probable, holding a New Year's reception at the Palace in St. Petersburg—his mother and sisters are receiving with him, and the first glimpse seen going up the steps to the private car.

The board of trade, had during the year 1912 brought out 290 women and children, being the families of official applicants whose applications were favorably considered by the commission. The total cost was $11,267.92. This association had shown excellent planning, for since commencement of operations, a few years ago, there had been no funds advanced which had not been repaid or are not likely to be repaid.

Removable Property.—The board of trade, that the sale into effect of the amalgamation agreement seemed to mark the beginning of an era of prosperity for this city. The completion of the high level bridge, which is to be the connecting link between Edmonton and the city of Edmonton, although retarded by a most unfortunate strike, now seems to be fairly close. He had reason to believe that time will be running out this spring or later, by May 1st. It was impossible to force the matter, but the completion of the bridge would mean to the residents of Greater Edmonton.

Greater Canada business men knew better than Edmontonians that Edmonton in ten years time will be equalled by not more than two cities in Western Canada. "It is a matter of regret," he added, "that we have not succeeded in having legislation enacted making the interpretation of lands offered for sale through advertising medium a criminal offense. Street railways are still being promoted in various subdivisions, where there are already a question relating thereto. This is a matter which constitutes an indirect way, for the price charged by the promoters is the real estate dealer, operating abroad, where people are more easily victimized."

Real Estate Good.—The Edmonton real estate market is in a very healthy condition at the present time, prices not having increased with the same rapidity that the growth of the city would have warranted. The price of business property is at the present time on the earning value of the property, considering that it should not carry less than 8 per cent. The other properties which have been put on the market have not been sold, but are valued on an earning capacity basis. The market has been active, but it is true that in most cases the value was reached a very short time after being placed on the market.

Some well thought out schemes placed on the market still improved, at least to the extent of having streets and a good roadway to the property itself. "The same McGregor expressed the appreciation of the board for the information contained in the president's address."

The board passed a motion thanking the president and his committee for the printed and circulated. Conservative Publicity.—Secretary McGee has presented a report reviewing the work done in the Board of Trade and the city of Edmonton. The correspondence, no attempt has been made to promulgate the idea that anyone who had been a failure elsewhere only needed to come to Edmonton to succeed. The contrast, it had been felt that Edmonton is to some extent in a position to be benefited by the success of others. The secretary said that this was the last time that publicity report would be presented, he had referred to the subject at length. The work of the city council for that year had been given in the past somewhat grudgingly. The report of the nominating committee concerning officers for the year was adopted without change. H. H. Cooper being elected president, R. H. Smith first vice, A. V. Holland, second, and M. B. Booth, third.

The retiring president and secretary were both thanked. The question of the disincorporation of the South side office was raised by Mr. Martin, who said that as long as they were not going in further for publicity, he did not see the use of continuing an expensive office of the board side. He moved that the South side office be discontinued as soon as possible. Mr. McGee seconded the motion and it was carried.
